The quarterly meeting of the East-en Connecticut Branch of the Womern Connecticut Branch of the Wom-an's Board of Missions was held at the Congregational church here Thurs-day with delegates present from 14 auxiliaries in the eastern part of the state. The meeting was a most in-teresting and profitable one. The re-ports from various officials, these occupying time at the morning session, showed that the period covered by the reports had been one of activity and that satisfying results had been achieved. At the meeting Miss Abby Wil-iard of Colchester, president of the Eastern Connecticut branch, presided. At the morning session the opening hymn was Gratitude. There was prayer and responsive reading. Miss Anna. D. Hearing. There is state-wide interest in the hearing that is to be held in Odd Fel-lows' hall this morning, relative to milk shipping facilities between this city and Boston and relative to other things concerning the marketing of Danielson for East Killingly tomorrow morning, April 1. It is understood that a heavy shipment of milk for the Providence market will be diverted from the Boston market on the very first day. Those who have arranged the new transportation scheme are confident that the service will prove satisfactory and that the business will grow. For several years an effort has C. been made to get such an arrangement as has now been provided, so the milk producers now have a choice of two big markets—Boston and Providence— which means competition for their milk and an opportunity for them to say to which city it shall be sent.
